

ROLL OF HONOUR

Policing is always a difficult job but policing in Ireland, and especially post 1922 in Northern Ireland, has not only been difficult but also extremely dangerous.

Many gallantry awards have been made to officers who have given exemplary service to our community and these medals culminated in the award to the Force of the George Cross in November 1999. To quote from Her Majesty The Queen's speech at Hillsborough Castle at the presentation of the George Cross:

"It is a singular acknowledgement of the gallantry and courage shown and in all too many cases, the ultimate sacrifice paid by members of the constabulary during the past 30 years of terrorism and civil unrest."

We commemorate in the Roll of Honour all the officers of the Royal Ulster Constabulary George Cross who from 1st June 1922 until 3rd November 2001 were killed as a result of terrorism and those who died in service .

"We Will Remember Them"

Sovereign's Awards listed in the Roll of Honour refer to those gained with the RUC GC.
